

we're opposed to spectrum protection for LPFM stations. Most of these stations are located and will be located in small markets where new or improved full power FM stations can still be located. Protecting LPFM stations would be akin to the local police department radio systems having to protect a kid's walkie talkie.